Where should we put bike share stations?

Portland is launching a public bike share system in July.
Your location is within the likely service area.

Help us decide on the best station locations by dropping in at the open houses and/or commenting online at pdxbikeshare.com.

BIKETOWN will be a public bike rental system for short trips. Public bicycles will be available to ride from one point to another for a small fee.
